

Pradhan Mantri Fasal Bima Yojana (PMFBY)

Documents required for Pradhan Mantri Fasal Bima Yojana (PMFBY) can vary slightly depending on your state and whether you're a loanee or non-loanee farmer. Here's a general checklist:

For All Applicants:

- Completed Application Form: Obtain the form from your local bank, insurance company representative, or download it from the PMFBY website (<https://pmfby.gov.in/>).
- Self-Declaration Form: This form typically confirms your insurable interest in the crop and the notified area.
- Aadhaar Card: Mandatory for most states.

Loanee Farmers (Farmers with Crop Loan):

- Land Records: Proof of land ownership documents like Khasra/Khatauni. (Requirements might differ by state).
- Crop Loan Documents: Loan sanction letter or passbook showing the loan details.

Non-Loanee Farmers:

- Land Records: Proof of land ownership documents like Khasra/Khatauni or Land Possession Certificate (LPC). (Specific requirements vary by state).
- Sharecroppers/Tenant Farmers: In some cases, additional documents like sharecropping agreements or permission from landowners might be required. Check with your local bank or insurance agent for details.

Additional Considerations:

- This is a general checklist. It's always best to confirm the exact document requirements with your local bank, insurance company representative, or the nearest agriculture department office.
- Some states might have additional requirements.
- The PMFBY website (<https://pmfby.gov.in/>) might have state-specific information.

Optional:

- Passport Size Photograph: While not mandatory everywhere, some states or insurance companies might request it.
